A message from Haylie Ecker,

Artistic Director, PLAY! (PLAY! 藝術總監)

I am proud to join forces with PPHK to bring to you PLAY!, a concert series dedicated to the ears of those aged 6 and up, and those young at heart. Music is key to development. And PLAY! is a delicious mix of recital and chamber music, uniquely programmed to fuel and inspire the creative genius within your children, performed by some of the world's best musicians. Whether your children are first-time concert goers, or budding prodigies, we aim to make each PLAY! concert a completely wondrous and unique experience, designed to captivate your child's imagination and leave them with a music memory to last a lifetime.

Alpin Hong 洪雅文 (Piano 鋼琴)

Whirlwind American tours and performances across the globe have earned pianist Alpin Hong the reputation as a modern day Pied Piper. His combination of stunning technique, emotional range, and rare humor continues to bring audiences young and old to their feet.

Rooted in an extensive classical music training at The Juilliard School and a background in skateboarding, snowboarding, martial arts, and video games, Hong is a creative force unmatched in his youthful vivacity and boundless energy. His astonishing ability to connect to people of all ages, experiences, and backgrounds distinguishes him and shapes his evolving performance style.

Hong's uniquely humorous and visionary approach to arts education has resulted in arts residencies worldwide. In recognition of the pianist's gift for communicating his passion for music to all audiences, The McGraw-Hill Companies honored him with the Robert Sherman Award for Music Education and Community Outreach. His tireless pursuit to find, inspire, and collaborate with talents in every community results in unforgettable presentations that both expand worlds and hit close to home.

Hong is a native of Michigan and made his orchestral debut with the Kalamazoo Symphony at the age of ten. He moved to Los Angeles soon after and garnered competition victories at a young age with wins at the 1989 Stravinsky Piano Competition, the 1993 SYMF Competition, and the 1994 Los Angeles Spotlight Awards Competition. In addition, he was the winner of the Concert Artists Guild Competition in 2001.
