Ning Feng

Critics around the world have called Ning Feng's virtuoso playing "dazzlingly masterful", "breathtaking", "magnificent" and "flawless". Born in Chengdu, Ning Feng studied at the Sichuan Conservatory of Music and London's Royal Academy of Music where he was the first student ever to be awarded 100% for his final recital.

Ning Feng was First Prize winner of the 2005 Michael Hill International Violin Competition (New Zealand), and in 2006 won first prize in the International Paganini Competition, following in the footsteps of violinists such as Kavakos and Kremer.

In recent seasons Ning has performed with orchestras such as the Budapest Festival Orchestra/Iván Fischer and the Russian State Symphony/Vladimir Jurowski, and in halls such as Sydney Opera House, Vienna Konzerthaus, Berlin Konzerthaus, Shanghai Oriental Arts Center and Beijing's NCPA.

Ning Feng's recording of the Bruch Scottish Fantasy and the Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto with Deutsches Symphonie-Orchester Berlin was released in February 2014.
